

Water Resources and Pollution in Canada

MFworks Student Activity Sheets

Name: _____

Answers to the following questions can be obtained while completing the MFworks Water Resources and Pollution in Canada.*

1) Can you find the cities of Montreal and Ottawa? Describe where they are?

2) Can you find the Ottawa River and the St. Lawrence River? Describe these shapes and the visual appearance of these two features?

3) Can you describe the distribution of agriculture in the image?

4) What can you say about the landcover within the Ottawa River watershed?

5) If agricultural runoff is a major source of pollution, which sub-basin is at greatest risk? Why?

6) Which sub-basin is most affected by acid rain? _____

7) Can you identify some of the major topographic features?

8) Where is the highest point? _____

9) Where is the lowest? _____

10) Can you trace some of the runoff patterns? Describe them here.

11) Can you see a pattern between the runoff and the slope? _____

12) If steeper slopes are good for ski hills, where would you expect to find the ski hills in this watershed?

13) What is the maximum value? _____

14) What is the minimum value? _____

15) What is the pattern of values? _____

16) What is the size of the kernel? _____

17) What direction is the illumination coming from? _____

18) What happens if we rotate the filter by 180 degrees? _____

19) What changes do you see?

20) Can you see a relationship between topography and agriculture?

21) What can you see in the shaded landcover map of the Ottawa River watershed?
