

Wildlife and Species Richness of Canada ArcView Student Activity Sheet

Name: _____

Answers to the following questions can be obtained while completing the Wildlife and Species Richness of Canada ArcView Lesson.*

1) How is it different from the non-referenced map?

2) What can you say about the distribution of bird species across Canada?

3) Find the ecozone with the greatest number of bird species. Give some possible reasons why this ecozone has the greatest number of bird species.

4) Find the ecozone with the greatest number of mammal species. Give some possible reasons why this ecozone has the greatest number of mammal species.

5) Determine the ecozone with the greatest number of tree species (tree_sp).

6) Determine the ecozone with the greatest number of reptiles & amphibians (reptile_).

6) Which ecozone has no tree species? _____

Why? _____

7) Which ecozones have no reptiles or amphibians? _____

Why? _____

8) From the graph you created in Arc View, which ecozone has the highest species richness?

Why? _____

9) Which species group makes up the largest percentage of the species richness in the Mixedwood Plains ecozone? _____

10) Which ecozone has the largest number of species at risk? _____

Why? _____

11) Is there a correlation between species at risk and centers of high population?

