

NAME: _____

WORKSHEET 12
GLOBAL SUSTAINABLE AGRICULTURE
DATE: _____

Instructions: The following answers can be found in the GIS lesson.

1. What are the three largest countries in the world?

2. What is the world's largest country and in which continent is it located?

3. How did the map and legend change?

4. What are the differences between land area and arable land areas?

5. Describe the global distribution of arable land.

6. What parts of the world have the highest percentage of arable land?

7. Find the names of five countries with a high percentage of arable land.

8. Find the names of five countries with a small percentage of arable land.

9. Where can you find countries with more than 10% of arable land?

10. How many countries have had increases in agricultural production?

11. What else does this map tell us about the location of countries with decreases in agricultural production?

12. Which Countries used over 2 000 000 000 metric tons of fertilizer in 1970 and 1985?
