TASK:

Through an ice-breaker activity, students learn about their role in globalisation.

EXPECTATIONS:

The student will:

- Appreciate their role in the global economy.

TIMEFRAME:

15 Minutes

ACHIEVEMENT CATEGORIES:

Knowledge / Understanding

Thinking / Inquiry

Communication

Application / Making Connections

MATERIALS:

BINGO Cards

VOCABULARY:

Boycott

IMF

Pad thai

Global BINGO

Procedure:

- Explain to your students that they will be playing the game global bingo. Each student will receive a bingo card (See Student Activity Sheet 1).
- They must find out which of their classmates meet the criteria listed on the BINGO card.
- To win, a student must get two rows of squares.
- They cannot sign their own paper and each student can only sign another person's BINGO card once.
- You can give some reward to the winning students if the people who have signed his/her paper were truthful (e.g. a sample of fair trade hot chocolate).
- At the end of the game, make sure that everyone understands all the points on the BINGO card. Some may be confused about the term IMF, pad thai or boycotting a product.
- Use the discussion questions on the next page to initiate a debate on globalisation with your students.

Discussion on Globalisation

Knowledge / Understanding

When you think of the word globalisation, what comes to mind?
(Write your students' answers on the blackboard)

Thinking / Inquiry

How are the answers your students came up with related to one another? Draw a web of interconnectivity on the board.

Application / Making Connections

What role do your students play in this web of globalisation?
